Mission Fed ArtWalk Returns for the 36th Year to Little Italy on April 25-26

-The power of art will come alive once again with artwork from over 350 renowned artists and new talent from around the world, stretching across 16 blocks-

SAN DIEGO (November 15, 2019) – Mission Fed ArtWalk announces its return to San Diego’s Little Italy on Saturday, April 25 and Sunday, April 26. The weekend-long premier arts and culture event will bring together every facet of visual and performing arts. The free arts festival will feature more than 350 local, national and international artists including both familiar and new participating artists. Locals and visitors alike will have the opportunity to meet and purchase one-of-a-kind art directly from the creators. As the largest and longest running arts festival in Southern California, the event will showcase every medium of art including painting, sculpture, glass work, photography, fine jewelry and more. Attendees will also enjoy live music, dance performances, interactive art experiences, street food, family-friendly art projects at KidsWalk and more.

“We are thrilled for the return of the 36th annual Mission Fed ArtWalk festival, and look forward to bringing a fresh experience to this year’s event. There will be something artistic for everyone in the family to participate in and enjoy,” said Sandi Cottrell, Director of ArtWalk San Diego. “Mission Fed ArtWalk has become a tradition that unites San Diegans, connecting them through the different facets of creative expression.”

The yearly art festival is brought to San Diego by the same team that brings ArtWalk @ Liberty Station to the Arts District in Liberty Station every August and ArtWalk Carlsbad to North County. This event is made possible with the support of Mission Fed Credit Union who helps keep the festival free to the public.

Every ArtWalk event helps support ArtReach San Diego, a nonprofit organization aimed at increasing equity in visual arts education to K-8 schools throughout San Diego County by delivering free or low cost workshops to schools that have no other resources for art.

Mission Fed ArtWalk will be located between Ash and Grape Streets in San Diego's Little Italy neighborhood. The event will run from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, April 25 and Sunday, April 26. Attendance is free. More information will be released in the upcoming months. For more details on Mission Fed ArtWalk, visit www.missionfedartwalk.org.
